Public Consultation Tracking System

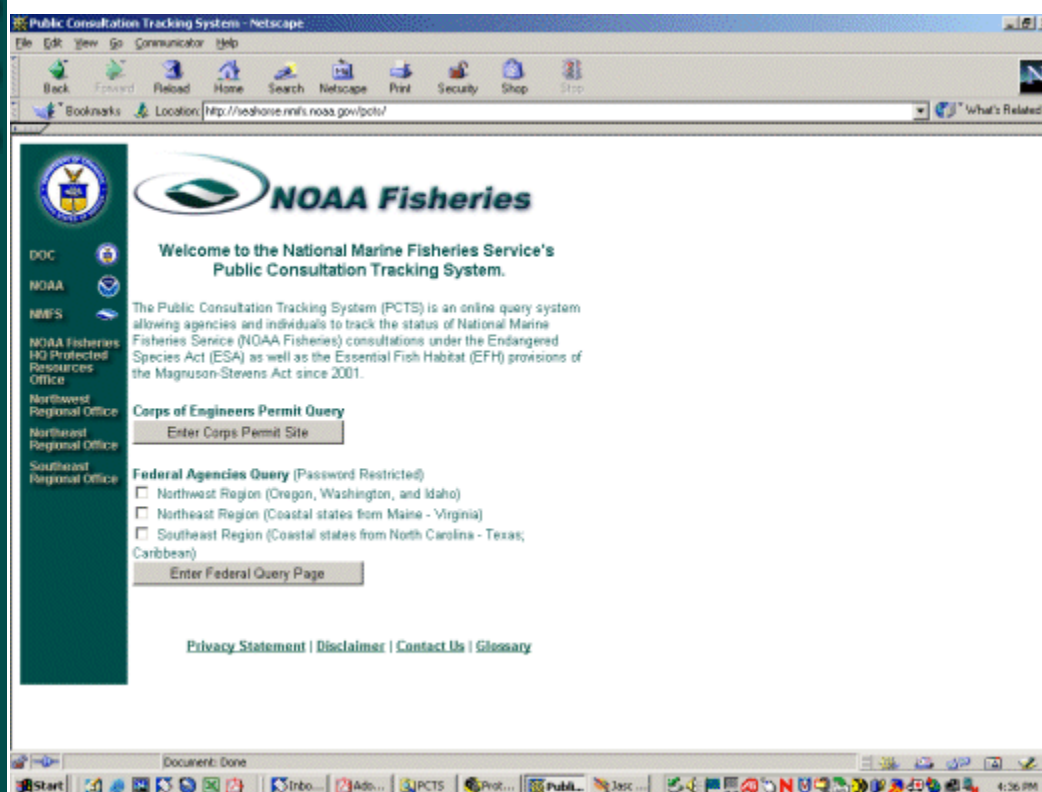

NOAA Fisheries

The Public Consultation Tracking System (PCTS) is an online query system allowing agencies and individuals to track the status of National Marine Fisheries Service (NOAA Fisheries) consultations under the Endangered Species Act (ESA) as well as the Essential Fish Habitat (EFH) provisions of the Magnuson-Stevens Act since 2001.

Go to the PCTS Web Site: <http://www.nmfs.noaa.gov/pcts>

Questions: Email PCTS User Support at PCTS.Usersupport@noaa.gov

Corps of Engineers Permit Query

Step 1: Select the button Enter Corps Permit Site

The screenshot shows the NOAA Fisheries Public Consultation Tracking System homepage. The page has a green header with the NOAA logo and the title "Public Consultation Tracking System". Below the header, there is a navigation menu on the left with links to "PCTS Home", "DOC", "NOAA", "FWS", "NOAA Fisheries and Protected Resources Office", "Northwest Regional Office", "Southeast Regional Office", "Corps of Engineers Districts", "Corps Tracking System", and "FWS Tracking System". The main content area contains a welcome message and instructions on how to use the system. A "Choose Agency Subdivision (Required):" dropdown menu is visible, with a list of states and territories on the right. The dropdown menu is currently set to "Select One".
